

To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to thank the admissions staff at the UC Davis School of Law for taking the time to evaluate my application, and for the opportunity of being on the waitlist. I am writing to indicate my continued interest in attending the UC Davis School of Law.

During my final quarter as an Aggie, I toured King Hall and completed a legal writing course, which challenged me to be a better writer and further inspired me to pursue a career in law. UC Davis supplied not only a great education, but also a supportive community of peers and knowledgeable staff. UC Davis continues to be my top choice for law school, one of the primary reasons is for its Public Service Law Certificate Program, as an individual who dreams of a future career in the public sector, I value the financial aid programs that Davis provides in this area as well as the opportunities that are offered to learn outside the classroom.

Since applying, I have been expanding on my current role working in public service. As city staff for the Human Relations Commission, a commission that is dedicated to protecting citizens rights against discrimination, I was involved in the preparation and implementation of a diversity panel which addressed issues concerning the intersection between diversity and economics. Currently, I am working on an initiative that would inform discriminated-against residents of the resources they have available to them. I am also enthusiastically spearheading an initiative that would allow our local farmers market to accept Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits, allowing low-income residents to benefit from the fresh food that the farmers market has to offer. My immediate focus is developing a plan for reaching these residents and educating them of the resources they have available.

I continue to be confident that the high caliber legal education that UC Davis will provide me with will send me out into the world with the skills needed to implement valuable policies and initiatives.

Thank you for your time and consideration,
